What are your options?

Study abroad

Study abroad websites show you the most up-to-date options available if you want to spend a period of time abroad as part of your degree programme at the UvA. There are options available for both Bachelor’s and Master’s students: from academic studies, internships and conferences to conducting research abroad. Whether you want to go a couple of weeks, a semester or an entire year, there is something for you. Also if you are considering doing a full Master’s programme abroad, you will find all the information you need here. Visit studyabroad.uva.nl to see the current possibilities.

Student exchange

In an exchange, students are ‘exchanged’ between two universities. Agreements have been made regarding entry requirements, the length of the study period and the number of students that can be exchanged per year. As a UvA student, you pay tuition fees to the UvA and you will not have to pay tuition fees to the host university.

Universitas 21 (U21)

universitas21.com

League of European Research Universities (LERU)

leru.org

Universities from the Capitals of Europe (UNICA)

www.unica-network.eu

Global Exchange Programme

There are also cross-faculty agreement programmes between universities. This means that students from all disciplines are eligible for these exchange programmes. The Global Exchange Programme is coordinated by the Office of International Student Affairs (BIS).

Further information on exchange programmes can be found at studyabroad.uva.nl > exchanges

International Student Network (ISN)

If you would like to be part of the international student community in Amsterdam, consider joining ISN. It is a great way to get to know international students, and you can gain valuable experience as a coach or buddy or as a committee or board member. For more information, visit: isnamsterdam.nl.

International networks

The University of Amsterdam is actively involved in a number of international networks. Universities collaborate in these networks in many different areas, including in exchange programmes, summer programmes and student exchanges.

Universiteit (U) U21

universtad.com

Network for Intercultural Competence to facilitate Entrepreneurship (NIC-E)

nic-e.org

UNICA

www.unica-network.eu

Nicky Oostrik

University of New South Wales

The first step on the road to an unforgettable experience

Due to the coronavirus, it is uncertain if and when you can go abroad. Still, we would like to give you an overview of our programmes. The Study Abroad website shows you the most up-to-date options available if you want to spend a period of time abroad as part of your degree programme at the UvA. There are options available for both Bachelor’s and Master’s students from academic studies, internships and conferences to conducting research abroad. Whether you want to go a couple of weeks, a semester or an entire year, there is something for you. Also if you are considering doing a full Master’s programme abroad, you will find all the information you need here. Visit studyabroad.uva.nl to see the current possibilities.

Student exchange

In an exchange, students are ‘exchanged’ between two universities. Agreements have been made regarding entry requirements, the length of the study period and the number of students that can be exchanged per year. As a UvA student, you pay tuition fees to the UvA and you will not have to pay tuition fees to the host university.

There are two types of exchanges:

Faculty and Erasmus exchange programmes

Faculty exchange programmes are agreements between a UvA faculty and a faculty at a university abroad. There are exchange possibilities both within and outside Europe, although most faculty exchanges take place within Europe as part of the Erasmus programme. In many cases grants are available for this.

Global Exchange Programme

There are also cross-faculty agreement programmes between universities. This means that students from all disciplines are eligible for these exchange programmes. The Global Exchange Programme is coordinated by the Office of International Student Affairs (BIS).

Further information on exchange programmes can be found at studyabroad.uva.nl > exchanges

Contact

Central Student Service Desk

The Central Student Service Desk is the first point of contact for general questions about studying abroad. If your query is more specific, they can refer you to the department that is best able to provide you with the advice that you require:

• Office of International Student Affairs
• Faculty International Offices
• Student Careers Centre
• Student counsellors
• Study adviser

studyabroad.uva.nl > contact

studyabroad.uva.nl

International Student Network (ISN)

Want to make the most of your exchange upon your return? Sign up for the Exchange Ambassadors Programme. As an ambassador of a partner university, you will organise events and help students prepare for another culture. In return, you will receive a certificate and training to develop your professional skills. For more information, visit: uva.nl/ambassadors

International networks

The University of Amsterdam is actively involved in a number of international networks. Universities collaborate in these networks in many different areas, including in exchange programmes, summer programmes and student exchanges.

Universiteit (U) U21

universtad.com

Network for Intercultural Competence to facilitate Entrepreneurship (NIC-E)

nic-e.org

League of European Research Universities (LERU)

leru.org

Universities from the Capitals of Europe (UNICA)

www.unica-network.eu

Central Student Service Desk

The Central Student Service Desk is the first point of contact for general questions about studying abroad. If your query is more specific, they can refer you to the department that is best able to provide you with the advice that you require:

• Office of International Student Affairs
• Faculty International Offices
• Student Careers Centre
• Student counsellors
• Study adviser

studyabroad.uva.nl > contact
Nicky Onstenk
University of New South Wales

6 mm van de kant af ivm snijden van de 4-luik

What are your options?

Study abroad

2021
2022

Exchange Ambassadors Programme

Want to make the most of your exchange upon your return? Sign up for the Exchange Ambassadors Programme. As an ambassador of a partner university, you will organise events and help students prepare for another culture. In return, you will receive a certificate and training to develop your professional skills. For more information, visit: uva.nl/ambassadors

International Student Network (ISN)

If you would like to be part of the international student community in Amsterdam, consider joining ISN. It is a great way to get to know international students, and you can gain valuable experience as a coach or buddy or as a committee or board member. For more information, visit: isnamsterdam.nl.

International networks

The University of Amsterdam is actively involved in a number of international networks. Universities collaborate in these networks in many different areas, including in exchange programmes, summer programmes and student conferences.

The first step on the road to an unforgettable experience

Due to the coronavirus, it is uncertain if and when you can go abroad. Still, we would like to give you an overview of our programmes. The Study Abroad website shows you the most up-to-date options available if you want to spend a period of time abroad as part of your degree programme at the UvA. There are options available for both Bachelor’s and Master’s students from academic studies, internships and conferences to conducting research abroad. Whether you want to go a couple of weeks, a semester or an entire year, there is something for you. Also if you are considering doing a full Master’s programme abroad, you will find all the information you need here. Visit studyabroad.uva.nl to see the current possibilities.

Student exchange

In an exchange, students are ‘exchanged’ between two universities. Agreements have been made regarding entry requirements, the length of the study period and the number of students that can be exchanged per year. As a UvA student, you pay tuition fees to the UvA and you will not have to pay tuition fees to the host university.

There are two types of exchanges:

Faculty and Erasmus exchange programmes

Faculty exchange programmes are agreements between a UvA faculty and a faculty at a university abroad. There are exchange possibilities both within and outside Europe, although most faculty exchanges take place within Europe as part of the Erasmus programme. In many cases grants are available for this.

Global Exchange Programme

There are also cross-faculty agreements between universities. This means that students from all disciplines are eligible for these exchange programmes. The Global Exchange Programme is coordinated by the Office of International Student Affairs (BIS).

Further information on exchange programmes can be found at studyabroad.uva.nl > exchanges

No rights may be derived from this publication. Reproduction of this publication in any form whatsoever is only permitted with the prior consent of UvA’s Office of International Student Affairs.

Exchange Ambassadors Programme

Want to make the most of your exchange upon your return? Sign up for the Exchange Ambassadors Programme. As an ambassador of a partner university, you will organise events and help students prepare for another culture. In return, you will receive a certificate and training to develop your professional skills. For more information, visit: uva.nl/ambassadors

International Student Network (ISN)

If you would like to be part of the international student community in Amsterdam, consider joining ISN. It is a great way to get to know international students, and you can gain valuable experience as a coach or buddy or as a committee or board member. For more information, visit: isnamsterdam.nl.

International networks

The University of Amsterdam is actively involved in a number of international networks. Universities collaborate in these networks in many different areas, including in exchange programmes, summer programmes and student conferences.

The first step on the road to an unforgettable experience

Due to the coronavirus, it is uncertain if and when you can go abroad. Still, we would like to give you an overview of our programmes. The Study Abroad website shows you the most up-to-date options available if you want to spend a period of time abroad as part of your degree programme at the UvA. There are options available for both Bachelor’s and Master’s students from academic studies, internships and conferences to conducting research abroad. Whether you want to go a couple of weeks, a semester or an entire year, there is something for you. Also if you are considering doing a full Master’s programme abroad, you will find all the information you need here. Visit studyabroad.uva.nl to see the current possibilities.

Student exchange

In an exchange, students are ‘exchanged’ between two universities. Agreements have been made regarding entry requirements, the length of the study period and the number of students that can be exchanged per year. As a UvA student, you pay tuition fees to the UvA and you will not have to pay tuition fees to the host university.

There are two types of exchanges:

Faculty and Erasmus exchange programmes

Faculty exchange programmes are agreements between a UvA faculty and a faculty at a university abroad. There are exchange possibilities both within and outside Europe, although most faculty exchanges take place within Europe as part of the Erasmus programme. In many cases grants are available for this.

Global Exchange Programme

There are also cross-faculty agreements between universities. This means that students from all disciplines are eligible for these exchange programmes. The Global Exchange Programme is coordinated by the Office of International Student Affairs (BIS).

Further information on exchange programmes can be found at studyabroad.uva.nl > exchanges
Orientation, advice and application

World Map
The Digital World Map provides an overview of all the exchange programmes. Clicking on the different destinations will tell you the type of agreement in place, and how to apply. worldkaart-uva.nl > work placements and research

Internships and research
You can find an overview of the options available to you at studyabroad.uva.nl > short programmes

Short term programmes
If you do not want to study abroad for an entire semester or year, check out the wide range of shorter programmes that offer something for everyone. You can participate in a global challenge as part of an international team, attend a student conference, or take part in one of the many summer schools that are on offer. These are just a few examples. You can find an overview of the options available to you at studyabroad.uva.nl > short programmes

Internships
You can find an overview of the internship options available to you at studyabroad.uva.nl > work placements and research

Advice
Although you yourself are responsible for exploring your options and arranging your application, there are a number of departments that can help you with this. You can find a list of these at studyabroad.uva.nl > contact

Study adviser and faculty International Offices
To be eligible for an Erasmus exchange, you may be eligible for a (partial) grant. Study counsellors can help you with your financial planning and with the application for scholarships and funds.

Practical matters
Studying abroad often costs more than studying in the Netherlands, and you will have to make a lot of arrangements yourself. You can find information and tips on a wide range of practical matters relating to studying abroad (finance, language, visas, accommodation and insurance) at studyabroad.uva.nl > practical matters

World Map
The Digital World Map provides an overview of all the exchange programmes. Clicking on the different destinations will tell you the type of agreement in place, and how to apply. worldkaart-uva.nl > work placements and research

Internships and research
You can find an overview of the options available to you at studyabroad.uva.nl > short programmes
Short term programmes

If you do not want to study abroad for an entire semester or year, check out the wide range of shorter off-the-beaten-track programmes that offer something for everyone. You can participate in a global challenge as part of an international team, attend a student conference, or take part in one of the many summer schools that are on offer. These are just a few examples. You can find an overview of the options available to you at studyabroad.uva.nl > short programmes

Internships and research

An internship abroad gives you actual workplace experience and enables you to put your theoretical knowledge into practice. International experience will benefit your CV, while expanding your network will improve your chances of success on the international job market. In case you are interested in conducting research at a university or institute abroad, contact your study adviser or the lecturers and professors involved in your degree programme. More information on this is available online.

studyabroad.uva.nl > work placements and research

Why go abroad?

Spending some time abroad during your degree programme has many benefits. We have listed five good reasons:

• Getting to know a country from the inside
• Learning a new language
• Meeting people from different cultures
• Enhancing your personal development
• Improving your chances of admission to a selective or international Master’s programme

Orientation, advice and application

World Map

The Digital World Map provides an overview of all the exchange programmes. Clicking on the different destinations will tell you the type of agreement in place, and how to apply. worldkaart-uva.nl

Orientation

It is important that you have a clear picture of where you want to go, what you want to do, and what your goals are. Exploring your options takes time. Begin your orientation process well in advance, and carefully check the application deadlines. For most programmes, you will need to apply anywhere from six months to more than a year in advance before leaving the Netherlands.

Information sessions

Attending an information session is a good first step in your orientation process. Over the course of the year, a number of information meetings will be held to inform you about the various options for studying abroad. You can find details of these at studyabroad.uva.nl > events

Advice

Although you yourself are responsible for exploring your options and arranging your application, there are a number of departments that can help you with this. You can find a list of these at studyabroad.uva.nl > contact

Study adviser and faculty International Offices

Once you more or less know how you want to spend your time abroad, it is a good idea to get in touch with your study adviser or with the International Office at your faculty. They can give you specific advice on how to proceed, and how they fit with the curriculum. You can also ask them questions about the faculty exchange programmes.

Office of International Student Affairs

If you spend part of your studies abroad, you may be eligible for a (partial) grant. Student counsellors can help you with your financial planning and with the application for scholarships and funds. Apply with a plan B

To be eligible for an Erasmus exchange, Global Exchange Programme or Global Short Term Programme, you will need to compile a personal portfolio. Students will be selected on the basis of this portfolio, and there is no guarantee that you will be placed in your preferred destination. So make sure to have a plan B, and remember to check the various application deadlines.

Practical matters

Studying abroad often costs more than studying in the Netherlands, and you will have to make a lot of arrangements yourself. You can find information and tips on a wide range of practical matters relating to studying abroad (finance, language, visas, accommodation and insurance) at studyabroad.uva.nl > practical matters

Finn Liedtke

San Francisco State University

Finn Liedtke

San Francisco State University

Like to learn more about other students’ experiences? Check out their stories and photos on Facebook, Instagram or the Digital World Map.

facebook.com/studyabroad

instagram.com/uvaglobal

digital.worldmap.uva

Finn Liedtke

San Francisco State University

Like to learn more about other students’ experiences? Check out their stories and photos on Facebook, Instagram or the Digital World Map.

facebook.com/studyabroad

instagram.com/uvaglobal

digital.worldmap.uva

Finn Liedtke

San Francisco State University

Like to learn more about other students’ experiences? Check out their stories and photos on Facebook, Instagram or the Digital World Map.

facebook.com/studyabroad

instagram.com/uvaglobal

digital.worldmap.uva

Finn Liedtke

San Francisco State University

Like to learn more about other students’ experiences? Check out their stories and photos on Facebook, Instagram or the Digital World Map.

facebook.com/studyabroad

instagram.com/uvaglobal

digital.worldmap.uva

Finn Liedtke

San Francisco State University

Like to learn more about other students’ experiences? Check out their stories and photos on Facebook, Instagram or the Digital World Map.

facebook.com/studyabroad

Instagram.com/uvaglobal

Digital World Map.

Finn Liedtke

San Francisco State University

Like to learn more about other students’ experiences? Check out their stories and photos on Facebook, Instagram or the Digital World Map.

facebook.com/studyabroad

Instagram.com/uvaglobal

Digital World Map.

Finn Liedtke

San Francisco State University

Like to learn more about other students’ experiences? Check out their stories and photos on Facebook, Instagram or the Digital World Map.

facebook.com/studyabroad

Instagram.com/uvaglobal

Digital World Map.

Finn Liedtke

San Francisco State University

Like to learn more about other students’ experiences? Check out their stories and photos on Facebook, Instagram or the Digital World Map.

facebook.com/studyabroad

Instagram.com/uvaglobal

Digital World Map.

Finn Liedtke

San Francisco State University

Like to learn more about other students’ experiences? Check out their stories and photos on Facebook, Instagram or the Digital World Map.

facebook.com/studyabroad

Instagram.com/uvaglobal

Digital World Map.
Orientation, advice and application

Short term programmes
If you do not want to study abroad for an entire semester or year, check out the wide range of shorter off-the-beaten-track programmes that offer something for everyone. You can participate in a global challenge as part of an international team, attend a student conference, or take part in one of the many summer schools that are on offer. These are just a few examples. You can find an overview of the options available to you at studyabroad.uva.nl > short programmes

Internships and research
An internship abroad gives you actual workplace experience and enables you to put your theoretical knowledge into practice. International experience will benefit your CV, while expanding your network will improve your chances of success on the international job market. In case you are interested in conducting research at a university or institute abroad, consult your study adviser or the lecturers and professors involved in your degree programmes. More information on this is available online. studyabroad.uva.nl > work placements and research

Short term programmes
Wide range of shorter programmes that offer something for everyone. You can participate in a global challenge as part of an international team, attend a student conference, or take part in one of the many summer schools that are on offer. These are just a few examples.

Orientation
Orientation is important that you have a clear picture of where you want to go, what you want to do, and what your goals are. Exploring your options takes time. Begin your orientation process well in advance, and carefully check the application deadlines. If possible, you will need to apply anywhere from six months to more than a year in advance before leaving the Netherlands.

Information sessions
Attending an information session is a good first step in your orientation process. Over the course of the year, a number of information meetings will be held to inform you about the various options for studying abroad. You can find details of these at studyabroad.uva.nl > events

Practice
Practice will help you gain greater insight into your reasons for going abroad to study or do an internship (or for a job).

Practical matters
Studying abroad often costs more than studying in the Netherlands, and you will have to make a lot of arrangements yourself. You can find information and tips on a wide range of practical matters relating to studying abroad (finance, language, visas, accommodation and insurance) at studyabroad.uva.nl > practical matters

World Map
The Digital World Map provides an overview of all the exchange programmes. Clicking on the different destinations will tell you the type of agreement in place, and how to apply. studyabroad.uva.nl > contact

Advice
Advice is important to know that you have a clear picture of where you want to go, what you want to do, and what your goals are.

Social media
Like to learn more about other students’ experiences? Check out their stories and photos on Facebook, Instagram or the Digital World Map.

Facebook.com/studyabroad
Instagram.com/studyabroad
Facebook.com/uvaglobal
Instagram.com/uvaglobal

Insurance
Please feel free to contact the Office of International Student Affairs (BIS), the UvA’s central office for international student mobility.

Student Careers Centre
Counsellors can help you with your financial planning and with the application for scholarships and funds.

Apply with plan B
To be eligible for an Erasmus exchange, Global Exchange Programme or Global Short Term Programme, you will need to compile a personal portfolio. Students will be selected on the basis of this portfolio, and there is no guarantee that you will be placed in your preferred destination. So make sure to have a plan B, and remember to check the various application deadlines.

Practical matters
Studying abroad often costs more than studying in the Netherlands, and you will have to make a lot of arrangements yourself. You can find information and tips on a wide range of practical matters relating to studying abroad (finance, language, visas, accommodation and insurance) at studyabroad.uva.nl > practical matters

Student Counsellors
Counsellors can help you with your financial planning and with the application for scholarships and funds.

Of course there are a number of departments that can help you with this
Short term programmes
If you do not want to study abroad for an entire semester or year, check out the wide range of shorter off-the-beaten-path programmes that offer something for everyone. You can participate in a global challenge as part of an international team, attend a student conference, or take part in one of the many summer schools that are on offer. There are just a few examples:

An internship abroad gives you actual workplace experience and enables you to put your theoretical knowledge into practice. International experience will benefit your CV, while expanding your network will improve your chances of success on the international job market. In case you are interested in conducting research at a university or institute abroad, consult your study adviser or the lecturers and professors involved in your degree programme. More information on this is available online.

You can find an overview of the options available to you at studyabroad.uva.nl > work placements and research

Internships and research
An internship abroad gives you actual workplace experience and enables you to put your theoretical knowledge into practice. International experience will benefit your CV, while expanding your network will improve your chances of success on the international job market. In case you are interested in conducting research at a university or institute abroad, consult your study adviser or the lecturers and professors involved in your degree programme. More information on this is available online.

You can find an overview of the options available to you at studyabroad.uva.nl > work placements and research

Orientation, advice and application

World Map
The Digital World Map provides an overview of all the exchange programmes. Clicking on the different destinations will tell you the type of agreement in place, and how to apply. worldkaart.uva.nl

Orientation
It is important that you have a clear picture of where you want to go, what you want to do, and what your goals are. Exploring your options takes time. Begin your orientation process well in advance, and carefully check the application deadlines. For most programmes, you will need to apply anywhere from six months to more than a year in advance before leaving the Netherlands.

Information sessions
Attending an information session is a good first step in your orientation process. Over the course of the year, a number of information meetings will be held to inform you about the various options for studying abroad. You can find details of these at studyabroad.uva.nl > events

Advice
Although you yourself are responsible for exploring your options and arranging your application, there are a number of departments that can help you with this. You can find a list of those at studyabroad.uva.nl > contact

Study adviser and faculty International Offices
Once you have more or less know how you want to spend your time abroad, it is a good idea to get in touch with your study adviser or with the International Office at your faculty. They can give you specific advice on your desired field and plan and how they fit with the curriculum. You can also ask them questions about the faculty exchange programmes.

Office of International Student Affairs
If you spend part of your studies abroad, you may be eligible for a (partial) grant. Student counsellors can help you with your financial planning and with the application for scholarships and funds.

Apply with a plan B
To be eligible for an Erasmus exchange, Global Exchange Programme or Global Short Term Programme, you will need to compile a personal portfolio. Students will gain greater insight into your reasons for going abroad to study or do an internship (or for a job).

Student counsellors
If you spend part of your studies abroad, you may be eligible for a (partial) grant. Student counsellors can help you with your financial planning and with the application for scholarships and funds.

Advice on your international plans and how to apply.

Financial planning
Student counsellors can help you with your financial planning and with the application for scholarships and funds.

Advice on your international plans and how to apply.

Financial planning
Student counsellors can help you with your financial planning and with the application for scholarships and funds.

Advice on your international plans and how to apply.

Financial planning
Student counsellors can help you with your financial planning and with the application for scholarships and funds.

Advice on your international plans and how to apply.

Financial planning
Student counsellors can help you with your financial planning and with the application for scholarships and funds.

Advice on your international plans and how to apply.
What are your options?

Study abroad

What are your options?

Study abroad

University of New South Wales

6 mm van de kant af ivm snijden van de 4-luik

Central Student Service Desk

The Central Student Service Desk is the first point of contact for general questions about studying abroad. If your query is more specific, they can refer you to the department that is best able to provide you with the advice that you require.

- Office of International Student Affairs
- Faculty International Offices
- Student Careers Centre
- Student Counsellors
- Study Advisers

Contact

studyabroad.uva.nl > contact

International Student Network

If you would like to be part of the international student community in Amsterdam, consider joining ISN. It is a great way to get to know international students, and you can gain valuable experience as a coach or buddy or as a committee or board member. For more information, visit: isnamsterdam.nl.

International networks

The University of Amsterdam is actively involved in a number of international networks. Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universitas 21, Universit
Central Student Service Desk
The Central Student Service Desk is the first point of contact for general questions about studying abroad. If your query is more specific, they can refer you to the department that is best able to provide you with the advice that you require:
• Office of International Student Affairs
• Faculty International Offices
• Student Careers Centre
• Student counsellors
• Study advisers

studyabroad.uva.nl > contact

Contact

Publication details

Study abroad

What are your options?

studyabroad.uva.nl

The first step on the road to an unforgettable experience

Due to the coronavirus, it is uncertain if and when you can go abroad. Still, we would like to give you an overview of our programmes. The Study Abroad website shows you the most up-to-date options available if you want to spend a period of time abroad as part of your degree programme at the UvA. There are options available for both Bachelor’s and Master’s students from academic studies, internships and conferences to conducting research abroad. Whether you want to go a couple of weeks, a semester or an entire year, there is something for you. Also if you are considering doing a full Master’s programme abroad, you will find all the information you need here. Visit studyabroad.uva.nl to see the current possibilities.

Student exchange
In an exchange, students are ‘exchanged’ between two universities. Agreements have been made regarding entry requirements, the length of the study period and the number of students that can be exchanged per year. As a UvA student, you pay tuition fees to the UvA and you will not have to pay tuition fees to the host university.

There are two types of exchanges:

- Faculty and Erasmus exchange programmes
- Faculty exchange programmes and agreements between a UvA faculty and a faculty at a university abroad. There are exchange possibilities within both the UvA and outside Europe, although most faculty exchanges take place within Europe as part of the Erasmus programme. In many cases grants are available for this.

Global Exchange Programme
There are also cross-faculty agreements between universities. This means that students from all disciplines are eligible for these exchange programmes. The Global Exchange Programme is coordinated by the Office of International Student Affairs (BIS).

Further information on exchange programmes can be found at studyabroad.uva.nl > exchanges

International networks

Universitas 21 (U21)
universitas21.com

League of European Research Universities (LERU)
leru.org

Universities from the Capitals of Europe (UNICA)
www.unica-network.eu

Central Student Service Desk

“Study Abroad” is a publication of Student Services, University of Amsterdam. (May), September 2020. Editorial advice: University of Amsterdam, Office of International Student Affairs, Design and editing: Link Student Services.

Cover photo: Saskia Woortman, University of Otago.

No right may be derived from this publication. Reproduction of this publication in any form whatsoever is only permitted with the prior consent of UvA’s Office of International Student Affairs.